

Graduated in Business Management from the University of Piraeus Greece.

Joined Olympic Airways in 1973 as a ticket agent.

Trained by IATA, Swissair, Lufthansa and EL.KE.PA., in various seminars related to the airline industry.

From 1982 until 1998 was an instructor at the Central Training Division of Olympic Airways.

She taught the classes of "Ticketing" also wrote the "Ticketing Manual" that was used by OA staff and by travel agencies all over Greece.

For the last 9 years she taught communication and teaching skills through the "Instructor's Seminar".

In 1999 she joined the Heliotopos Company designing and constructing websites.

Same year she became the manager of Heliotopos Hotel and from the year 2000 became also a wedding planner, organizing destination weddings on the island of Santorini.

Currently she is the chief wedding planner of Heliotopos, which has expanded its business by organizing destination weddings all over Greece.